

ACROSS

- 1 Northside suburb, home of the mafia (10)
- 7 Bacon, Jellett and Kernoff (7)
- 8 Buzz? Sure, but where? That's rude! (3)
- 9 In 1941 the North Strand was _____ (6)
- 10 This legend once played in Dalymount Park (4)
- 12 Barristers (and princes?) train in national school (4)
- 13 Spoon, oily, full of chips (6)
- 15 It's amusing in Dublin, if slightly windy (3)
- 16 Peninsula, Irishman's favourite holiday destination (7)
- 17 Too much of 15 across? That's disgusting! (10)

DOWN

- 2 Southside suburb, home of the four-faced liar (9)
- 3 Dirty? Er, no, just a troublemaker (6)
- 4 Hop kiln for making Guinness: just mix oats (4)
- 5 Alderman, MP, Senator, TD & 10-times Lord Mayor of Dublin (5,5)
- 6 Formerly a tiny fishing village in north county Dublin (10)
- 8 Freeflow: is that a medical procedure? (9)
- 11 Judas _____ or Michael Cleary (6)
- 14 This place sounds like air – on drugs, perhaps? (4)

“Words are but wind; and learning
is nothing but words; ergo,
learning is nothing but wind.”

– Jonathan Swift

Dublin is the theme of our crossword. Most clues are simple, with a few cryptic ones for good measure. When you're finished, tweet a picture of your crossword @littlemuseumdub